Hi [REDACTED],

The Heathgate plan I attached was the correct plan. This arrangement illustrates the area at the western end of the masterplan where vehicles that are rejected from the RRC or vehicles that wish to turn around will proceed to use the turning head and continue back along Regis Road in an eastbound direction and exit the masterplan.

This was requested in the comments that we received from Helen. Let me know if anything is unclear.

Kind regards,

Hi [REDACTED],

This Heathgate arrangement seems to be a completely different site to the Regis Road site, can you confirm you attached the correct drawing?

Thanks,
